THE WABASH RAILROAD
The Chicago Tribune calls the Wabash Railroad the "greatly improved line." The trouble is, (and the Tribune acknowledges it), that the Wabash, by its superior management, is forcing the Chicago lines to terms wherever it so desires. And that's what's the matter with the Tribune.
THAT report that "Rooney" Lawrence, the Democratic member of the Southern Penitentiary board, had tendered his resignation to the governor, turning out to be a canard, and the Springfield Register says that he can "retain his connection with the Southern Penitentiary as long as Gov. Cullom remains in office, and the governor will sustain him against all opposition." Mr. Lawrence, if he "has the edge" on the governor to that extent, is a little better off than any Republican appointee of the executive that we know of. It seems that John Oberly, too, is perfectly secure in his place "so long as Gov. Cullom remains in office," and the inquiry very naturally arises in this connection whether the astute politician, who presides over the destinies of Illinois through the grace of the Republican party, expects to win very many Democratic votes by the little sops which he scatters around to the Bourbon stables. Mr. Cullom has studied politics to but little purpose if he has not learned that favors bestowed upon his political opponents are favors worse than wasted.

SUICIDE OF MURDERER
CHICAGO, Ill., July 26, 1929.
EDITOR REPUBLICAN: Fred Malcho the German who was under indictment in this county for the murder of August Reubens and daughter, of this county on the 4th of last February, committed suicide at his home in Willington township this morning at 8 o'clock, by shooting himself through the heart. At the time of the murder Malcho made his escape, but was, as he said, so much troubled in his conscience that he soon returned, and surrendered himself to the officers of the law.
He was placed in confinement in the county jail to await his trial at the next term of the circuit court. When his case came on for trial at the March term of the court it was on motion of his attorneys continued.
On the night of the 6th of May, Malcho broke jail under circumstances that led many to believe that his jailor was guilty of crookedness. Nothing more was heard from him, notwithstanding Sheriff Peeler used every effort possible for his recapture, until a messenger brought the news to the city this morning of his death.
It appears that he came in the neighborhood of his home last night, but did not go to his home until morning. He was at home, conversing with his wife, when horns hoofs were heard on a bridge near by, and some of his old neighbors who it seems had a suspicion that he had come home, rode up and asked his wife if Fred was in the house—when he heard the noise he seemed greatly agitated and when the enquiries were made concerning himself he immediately stepped into another room and drawing a revolver shot himself through the heart dying instantly. He related to his wife all the scenes through which he had passed since his escape from jail. He said that he at first went to Chicago, from thence to Wisconsin and from there home. He said that he could not bear the idea of rambling over the country a fugitive from justice, and that something within him kept constantly telling him to return to his home.
He claimed that he received no assistance from the jailor or any one else when he escaped. Coroner O'Neal has gone to the scene of his death, when the facts will be investigated before a jury.

TUGAS is nothing that the Green-backers and the soft-money Democrats deprecate and dread so much as a speedy return of good times. A restoration of good times would wipe out all their stock in trade. What shall we think of a political party whose only hope of continued existence is a perpetuation of hard times? Everybody of some sense and knows that the country is now gradually recovering from its industrial and commercial depression; even the Pennsylvania Democratic Congressmen, H. E. Wright, who harangued a small crowd in this city on Saturday, couldn't shut his eyes to this fact; but in order to get over it, he declared that the improvement was "merely spasmodic." RAILROAD COMBINATION.
An Important Pooling Combination by the C., O. & L., Indianapolis and St. Louis and Wabash Roads.
Full Particulars of the New Arrangement—Approval of the Friends of the Companies.
Special telegram to the Inter-ocean.
NEW YORK, July 26.—The Tribune announces an important new railroad combination. An agreement has been formed for pooling the earnings of the Cleveland, Columbus, Cincinnati and Indianapolis, Indianapolis and St. Louis and Wabash roads. Negotiations which have been pending for several weeks were brought to an end to day by the execution of a contract by the president of the Wabash Company. It was signed on Saturday by the presidents of other companies, having been previously approved by the officers of the Pennsylvania Company, to which the Indianapolis and St. Louis road is leased. The contract, which takes effect from June 1, is to continue in force for five years. Provisions for its future extension are made. It covers the entire freight, passenger, mail and express earnings of the three companies during its continuance. It is said to be the practical consolidation of two nearly parallel lines from St. Louis to the lakes.
The successful result of the negotiations wins the warm approval of the friends of the companies. J. H. Deveraux, president of the Cleveland, Columbus, Cincinnati and Indianapolis, said recently that the agreement was the "bed rock" of all pooling arrangements, a model on which future combinations must be made. The principal feature of the agreement is its method of fixing the basis of division of business. The gross earnings of each company for 1928 are ascertained by deducting from apparent gross earnings all rebates, commissions, and other extraordinary expenses incurred in procuring business. The gross earnings thus ascertained constitute the basis of division for the following years. It is provided that the earnings shall be ascertained in the same manner at the end of each year, and the business of each year shall form the basis in each succeeding year.
The execution of the contract is entrusted to an executive committee which at all competing points shall divide the freight and passenger business as nearly as possible. At these points one agent shall act for all roads, in the case the earnings of either road shall exceed the agreed basis, one-half of the excess is allowed for the operating cost of the road earning the excess, and the balance is divided according to agreement. Additional lines may be built or acquired by either company, and additional traffic shall be added to its share of the pooled business.
The executive committee having charge of the contract and of all questions arising from it, consists of five members. Of these two are chosen by the directors of the Wabash, and two by those of the other two companies. These select a fifth, who is to be the commissioner of the pool. Subject to the orders of the Executive Committee the Commissioner is invested with the power to establish and maintain rates for the transportation of passengers and freight, etc. The members of the Executive Committee are J. H. Deveraux, H. B. Hurlbut, A. L. Hopkins and Solon Humphreys.
Yellow Jack's History.
The history of yellow fever in this country shows that it has hardly been the exception when the fever appeared as an epidemic the year following an epidemic. In 1847 there were 2,259 deaths in New Orleans, and 850 in 1848, and 737 in 1849. In 1853 there were 7,970 deaths in the same city, and there were 2,423 deaths in 1854 and 2,670 in 1854. In 1858 there 3,889 deaths, but none the next year. In 1867 there were 3,093 deaths, and none the following year. In the same proportion the fever appeared in the smaller places in Louisiana and Mississippi in those years. In 1848 when it appeared in New Orleans, it came in June, while the epidemic of 1847 began in August. The great epidemic of 1853 began in May, and the epidemic of the year following came in July, and in the next year in June. The epidemic in North Carolina in 1862 was followed in 1864, two years afterwards, by one of increased mortality, but not in the same cities and towns as a general thing. In 1797 Philadelphia's death list was 1,300; in 1798, 3,500, and in 1799 there were 1,000 deaths. So it was in 1802 three-fifths when Philadelphia next had the fever as an epidemic. In South Carolina it has been almost invariably the case that the second year brought an epidemic. Memphis and all other points which were infected in 1873 escaped the second year. In that year the fever began in Shreveport first and did not come until the latter part of August, reaching Memphis Sept. 14. August has been the favorite month for its inception. Last year it began near the first of this month in the South.

CASUALTIES AND OTHER MATTERINGS.
MEMPHIS, July 26.—Two more cases were reported to the Board of Health this afternoon. Four deaths have been reported by the undertakers—Ada Hicks (col.) Easter City (col.), Bridget Twomey, John Twomey. The two last named had never been reported to the Board of Health as having yellow fever, neither did the burial certificates have the signature of any attending physician, but as both died within two hours of each other, and had the black vomit just previous to their dissolution, it was presumed by the undertaker that they had died of yellow fever. A colored man, named C. Higgins, also died today. He had no physician, and the members of the Howard Association, whose attention was called to his death, had him buried and signed the certificate. The Yellow Fever Board of Health, however, refused to recognize the signature, and classed his death as unknown.
About fifty people went down to camp this afternoon. The weather has greatly interfered with the removal of the poor. The camp has been named Camp Marks in honor of the governor.
The Howard Association have assigned ten additional nurses to duty.
An aged negro named Billy McDonald, who had been left in charge of Mrs. Allen's residence, near the north gate of Elmwood Cemetery, was found dead this morning. Some unknown party murdered him. No clue to the cause or assassin.
Samuel A. Hatcher is reported in a critical condition to-night.
MEMPHIS, July 26.—Six new cases were reported to the board of health this morning, among the number S. A. Hatcher, of R. L. Cochran & Co., Maria Lannan and E. Rosenheim.
Late last night a messenger arrived from Raleigh, Tenn., for a nurse to attend Dora, daughter of chief of police Athey, who was reported down with fever.
Col. Cameron with his detail of colored soldiers took quiet possession of the grounds selected for the establishment of a camp, and by six o'clock this morning had 125 tents erected. The first train of refugees will leave this afternoon.
The policy of the authorities to furnish rations only to those who are in camp will be strictly observed.
All mail matter leaving this city is thoroughly disinfected under the personal supervision of the inspecting officer of the national board of health. The weather remains sultry.
CAIRO, July 26.—The Cairo quarantine as yet only prohibits the landing of steamers that touched at or near an infected port. The health of the city is good.
Quarantine is being made more effective by the health officers and the president of the board of Health. To-day instructions were issued to the managers and conductors of all railroads, all owners and officers of steamboats arriving at and departing from the city of Louisville to allow no baggage to pass into or out of the city until the same shall have been inspected and disinfected. Persons leaving the city no matter in what direction they may go, they will be compelled to have their baggage checked by one of the quarantine officers before the same will be allowed to leave the depot at this point.
NEW ORLEANS, July 26.—No new cases have been reported in the city today. The little child at 105 Bourbon street, which was brought here sick Sunday night from Morgan City, has the black vomit and will die. The Morgan City authorities sent the child and its parents to this city.
The work of disinfecting the city is going on vigorously. In the Fourth District every place has been disinfected from the river to Camp street, and from Seventh to Jackson. Similar work is progressing rapidly in the First and Second Districts.
DUBUQUE, Iowa, July 26.—A disease akin to cholera is ravaging Center Point, Linn county, in this State. Fully twenty persons have died from its effects during the past thirteen days, and an equal number are prostrated by it. The disease is also raging in Walker, a little town seven miles from Center Point, several deaths having occurred there. An order for forty coffins was received from Center Point to-day by a Dubuque undertaker. The physicians of Center Point are worn out, and the residents are fleeing from the place.
ST. PAUL, July 26.—John Krantz, of East Farmington, Polk County, drove into a lake with six children in his wagon to water his horses. The horses becoming frightened ran into deep water. The wagon was upset and Krantz and five of his children drowned. One boy escaped by swimming. The eldest child was a girl of 17.
LOUISVILLE, July 26.—No new cases of yellow fever have been reported here and the only ones we have are four in the yellow fever hospital, all being imported, and are all doing well.

WASHINGTON, July 26.—Both the Republican and Democratic Congressional Committees are supplying the voters of Ohio with immense numbers of campaign documents. Fifteen thousand or 20,000 copies of the President's five veto messages are now packed, ready for distribution, together with a vast number of the leading speeches on both sides during the extra session.
The approach of the elections is marked, as it was last summer, by inquiries upon financial matters from all parts of the country, and requests for Treasury statements. Recent series of tables giving an analysis of the public debt, the amount outstanding, amount of currency at the end of each fiscal year, and the memoranda of the reduction of the public debt recently prepared in the Treasury, as the readiest means of answering inquiries on these subject, are in great demand, especially in the West, and indicate a wide-spread public interest in financial affairs.
Pennsylvania has three candidates in the field for the English Mission—Hartranft, Quay and McVeagh. Quay is the selection of Senator Cameron's, notwithstanding McVeagh is Cameron's brother-in-law. Hartranft will have the soldiers' support.
Martin, the Republican member of the House from North Carolina, who has been interviewed, says that the Sherman boom is gaining considerable proportions in that State, and he thinks Sherman would have a stronger delegation to the National Convention than Grant.
WASHINGTON, July 26.—The cabinet to-day decided that the money appropriated by the recent act making appropriations for rivers and harbors should not be withheld. The full amount, nearly $9,000,000, will therefore be expended this year. A warrant placing this money to the credit of the war department was passed to the treasurer of the United States this afternoon.
The coinage of the standard silver dollar will this month fall between 350,000 and 400,000 short of the minimum amount fixed by law—$2,000,000, monthly. This deficiency will be due to the fact that on the 1st of July the stock of silver bullion at the San Francisco and Carson City mints had been so much reduced that there was nothing to commence work upon. Since then it has been impossible to procure bullion for those mints. Up to the 30th of June work was pushed forward continually at the Philadelphia and New Orleans mints, so as to run the coinage up to the $2,000,000 required for that month. The mint at Philadelphia will be run night and day to make up the deficiency.
LINCOLN, Ill., July 26.—The prisoners confined in the county jail, with the exception of Bell, the murderer of Talbot, overpowered the jailer and guard to-night as they were entering the jail to lock them in their cells, and made good their escape. Their names are John Woods and James Oliver, the Mount Pulaski Bank robbers, and Low Davis and Geo. Nickles, burglars. The officers are in pursuit. Bell was up stairs at the time and knew nothing of it until notified. Woods and Oliver, the bank robbers, are desperate men, and a special guard has been on duty since they have been in jail.
NEW YORK, July 26.—General Schofield, commandant at West Point, regards the action of the third class of the cadets to have been prompted by pure "cussedness," and believes that the academy will be better without the young men who give themselves up to the practice of hazing than with them.
The World to-day has another boom for Robinson, the Tildenite, for governor, while the Herald says to Tilden: "You can never be President of the United States," and adds, "we will not allude to your unfortunate income-tax suit, with its painful adjuncts, nor to your still more unfortunate cipher dispatches; to your somewhat relations with the late Wm. Tweed, nor to your relations to certain shipwrecked railroads."
LONDON, July 26.—Kate Webster, the Irish servant girl convicted of the murder of Mrs. Thomas, her mistress, at Richmond, in March last, was hanged in Wandsworth prison. She confessed that she committed the murder, and had no accomplices in the commission of the crime or the disposal of the remains of her victim. It was ascertained on the trial that Mrs. Thomas' body was boiled and thrown into the Thames, and that the head of the murdered woman was destroyed by burning. Fragments of the murdered woman's body, wrapped in paper and placed in a small pine box, were found floating in the Thames near Barnes Terrace, Barnes, on March 5th last. The woman Webster, when arrested, told several different stories, implicating a man named Church as her accomplice. But her charges were proven false, and on her trial, early this month, she was convicted of murder in the first degree.

BOSTON, July 26.—Mayor Lindale, of Fall River, had a long interview with Gov. Talbot to-day, relative to the labor trouble there. The mayor states that the governor assured him he would be supported in his efforts to preserve the peace.
COUNCIL BLUFFS, Iowa, July 26.—A farmer named Christian Putnam was lodged in jail, in this city to-night, on the charge of killing a neighbor, Jacob Mason, in Pleasant township, on Monday. Putnam will have a hearing to-morrow.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., July 26.—Hon. Bland Ballard, Judge of the United States Court, died suddenly at his home in this city, at one o'clock this afternoon. Judge Ballard was born in Shelby county, September, 4th, 1819; educated at Honover college, and studied law under Hon. James T. Morehead; graduated at Transylvania, and began the practice of his profession at Shelbyville; moved to Louisville in 1840, and was appointed judge of the district court by Lincoln in 1861. Judge Ballard has held many positions of trust and responsibility in this city, such as member of the council and school trustee.

Profitable Stock Investments.
Before Messrs. Lawrence & Co., the New York bankers, inaugurated the combination system of operating in stocks it was often very difficult for inexperienced operators, or even old stagers, to deal profitably by their single handed ventures. Now the field is open to every one for successful operations, and capital in any amounts, from $10, to $20,000 can be used with equal proportionate profit. Instead of distracting efforts among many customers, the orders of thousands are concentrated into one great pool and co-ordinated for the benefit of all, dividing the profits pro rata every month. A prominent citizen of San Francisco made $1,242.93 from an investment last month. Other customers are doing better still. $25 pays $125 during the month, $500 returns $1,250, or 6 percent on the stock, and so on as the matter moves. New circular contains "Two unerring rules of success," and full instructions for any one of unlimited capital and careful management are secured by the combination method. Stocks and bonds wanted. Government bonds supplied. Deposits received. Apply to Lawrence & Co., Bankers, 57 Exchange Place, New York City.

We congratulate Messrs. Wheelock, Finlay & Co., of New Orleans, La., upon their happy idea of giving to the public information of the contents of Dr. F. Wilhoft's Anti-Periodic or Fever and Ague Tonic, which of late has gained such well-deserved popularity among the people. As far as we know, this is the only proprietary remedy for the cure of Chills and Fever, the composition of which is not kept a secret. For sale by all druggists. July 17—dwtf.
